To Whom It May Concern;

We have no doubt that Joshua Osterholt would be a valuable asset to your company within days of him starting. He has been with us for several months as an intern on our marketing team and demonstrated remarkable aptitude. Josh has immense ability to grasp any problem and resolve it quickly. Working with a team or individually, he can handle challenges from a logical stand point. His responsible mindset, his notable work ethic will prove his worth in any capacity.

We give Josh our highest recommendation and I do not say this lightly. We have worked with hundreds of interns throughout the years and can honestly say that Josh stands out.

Please feel free to call or write us/me with any further questions.
